

Planting a Future

Saturday, March 30th

10 – 11am, Q&A to Follow

Necedah National Wildlife Refuge Visitor Center

Whether you own a half acre, or a thousand, you can manage your land to improve wildlife habitat. Find out what can be done to benefit you, your property, and Wisconsin's wildlife.

The Friends of Necedah National Wildlife Refuge present

Where is the Little Yellow River? How was it created? Why is it important? Learn about the history, ecology, drainage and restoration of the Little Yellow River on the Necedah National Wildlife Refuge.

Lost and Found: The Little Yellow River

Saturday, April 27th

10 – 11am, Q&A to Follow

Necedah National Wildlife Refuge Visitor Center